Your donations can help raise money for:

Hope Lodge®: Getting the right care sometimes means cancer patients must travel away from home, often to a cancer treatment facility in another city. The American Cancer Society is trying to make this difficult situation easier with the 27 currently available Hope Lodges. Hope Lodge provides housing free of charge for patients undergoing outpatient treatment in a supportive and caring environment. Accommodations and eligibility requirements may vary by location.

I Can Cope®: I Can Cope is an educational program for people facing cancer, either personally or as a caregiver. The program offers reliable information, peer support, and practical coping skills.
